

OTHER AVAILABLE CAMPUS RESOURCES

---

Note: Due to COVID-19 limitations some resources may not be available at this time.

Community Based Federal Work Study (CBFWS) Program

The CBFWS program matches Federal Work Study eligible students with part-time jobs at community agencies where they earn $10/hr. (paid by Loyola). Local non-profit agencies must apply to become CBFWS employers.

Contact: Office of Community Engaged Learning, Teaching and Scholarship (OCELTS), ocelts@loyno.edu, 504-865-2282

Location: Loyola University Main Campus, Marquette 312

Donnelley Center

The Donnelley Center for Nonprofit Communications is a student-run agency that assists non-profit organizations with advertising and promotional campaigns, designing of a flyer, or assisting with an integrated communications campaign.

Contact: The Donnelley Center, www.loyno.edu/donnelley-center
donelleycenter@loyno.edu or Director: Dr. Cathy Rogers, crogers@loyno.edu

Location: Loyola University Main Campus, Music/ Communications Complex 331

Portfolio Office, College of Business

The Portfolio Office seeks to place business students in internships in real world business settings to enhance their educational experiences.

Contact: Kathy Barnett, Director, kbarnett@loyno.edu 504-865-7968

Location: Loyola University Main Campus, Miller Hill 206

Social Justice Scholars

Social Justice Scholarships are awarded to students who exhibit a high level of academic promise and demonstrate a commitment to community service and activism. Each student in the program is expected to complete 40 hours of community service per semester and participate in various educational, social, and cultural activities. The program is administered through the Department of Sociology, and Social Justice Scholars are sociology majors or minors.

Contact: Dr. Annie McGlynn-Wright SJS Advisor, aemcglyn@loyno.edu

Wage Claim Clinic

The Wage Claim Clinic works toward the goal of educating workers about their rights, litigating their claims in order to hold employers accountable and advocating for changes and modification in the law, so that workers' working conditions are respected and wages are valued, protected and recovered in the least expensive, most efficient way possible.

Contact: Administrator, Stuart H. Smith Law Clinic and Center for Social Justice

Location: Loyola University Broadway Campus, Law Clinic 1st Floor, 504-861-5590

LUCAP (Loyola University Community Action Program)

It is a student-led, student-initiated volunteer and advocacy organization open to all students. LUCAP offers opportunities for direct service, reflection on larger social justice issues, advocacy and organizing in different areas based on the needs of the community and the interest of the students.

Contact: lucap@loyno.edu or Advisor: Jacob DeRusha, jwderush@loyno.edu 504-865-2093

---

OTHER AVAILABLE CAMPUS RESOURCES

---

Career Development Center

The CDC provides a wide selection of services and resources, both in-person and on-line to support students in their career decision-making, professional development, and job search plans. They also provide limited services to alumni. Their goal is to help students discover who they are and how that translates into career opportunities and success. They offer assistance for students seeking part-time work, internships, and post-graduation employment.

Contact: Jill Boatright, Director, boatright@loyno.edu, 504-865-3864

Location: Loyola University Main Campus, Monroe Library 2nd floor

Women's Resource Center (WRC)

The WRC aims to provide a positive experience by responding to students needs and fostering an environment that is free of sexism and other forms of institutional and individual oppression. The center strives to create a supportive and inclusive campus environment through services and advocacy as well as community partner involvement in activities of the center.

Contact: Dr. Patricia Boyett, Director, pbboyett@loyno.edu , 504-864-3082

Location: Loyola University Main Campus, Marquette Hall 318

Master of Counseling Program

Loyola students enrolled in the Masters of Counseling program are required to complete an internship with an approved site. If you are interested become a site for Counseling Practicum and Internships, contact Semonné Pierre, Admissions and Clinical Coordinator, saaguill@loyno.edu, 504-864-7853